

JOSEPH, MANN & CREED

Accounts Receivable Management

A Partner You Can Trust...

International Companies of all sizes, rely on Joseph, Mann & Creed as a key partner.

At JMC, we pride ourselves on our global reputation of providing excellent client service and reliable, consistent results. Unlike many collection agencies, our accounts receivable management approach stresses problem solving, negotiating and mediating with our clients' customers to resolve the debt. This approach maintains customer good will and produces higher recovery percentages.

Today's business is global, the different time zones, languages, laws and regulations can make debt recovery a challenge for international companies. With credit and collection resources in over one hundred countries, JMC's partner network can provide local expertise in resolving your debt collection needs.
